

CALL FOR PAPERS
for the 11th Central and Eastern European Communication and Media Conference – CEECOM 2018
Communicative Space – Political Space

DATES and PLACE
from 30 May to 1 June, 2018 in Szeged, Hungary.

ORGANIZERS

The conference is organized by the Department of Political Science and the Department of Communication and Media Studies at the University of Szeged, Hungary, in cooperation with the ECREA Central and East European Network, the CEECOM Consortium and the ICA Political Communication Division.

KEY QUESTIONS

The focal point of the 11th CEECOM is the conceptual and practical application of space in communication, media studies, political sciences, and a broad range of social scientific disciplines (from cultural anthropology through geography to sociology). The conference addresses a diverse set of issues and will cover a wide spectrum of ideas related to ongoing changes and transformations of the concept of space. The organizers look forward to presentations in (but not limited to) the following focal areas of interest:

- Physical political spaces as communicative spaces
- General questions of mediated spaces
- Social and control issues in politics and media
- Online / digital spaces

For more details please read our General Introduction at <http://ceecom2018.hu/index.php/general-introduction/>

CONFIRMED KEYNOTE SPEAKERS

- András Bozóki, Professor of Political Science (Central European University, Hungary)
- Epp Lauk, Professor of Journalism (University of Jyväskylä, Finland)
- Sabina Mihelj, Professor of Media and Cultural Analysis (Loughborough University, United Kingdom)
- Jérôme Monnet, Professor of Urban and Regional Planning (University of Paris-Est Marne-la-Vallée, France)
