

Peacekeeping in the 21st Century – New Challenges, New Answers

Lecturer	Dr. András Hárs andras.hars@juris.u-szeged.hu
Requirements and exam	Attendance and active participation at classes and Exam during the exam period
Subjects	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. Introduction, discussion of completion criteria</li> <li>2. The system of collective security</li> <li>3. Evolution of peacekeeping operations</li> <li>4. Teamwork: general challenges to UN peacekeeping</li> <li>5. Current successes, challenges and limits</li> <li>6. Responsibility of states and international organizations</li> <li>7. Types of personnel and crimes committed – sexual exploitation and abuse (SEA) explained</li> <li>8. Teamwork: specific challenges to UN peacekeeping</li> <li>9. UN responses to SEA</li> <li>10. Individual Responsibility – International Criminal Court and Other justice mechanisms: tri-hybrid courts, TCC, host state</li> <li>11. Case Law I. – ICJ, ICTY, ECTHR</li> <li>12. The law of armed conflict – what peacekeepers can and can't do</li> <li>13. Exam</li> </ol>
Materials for the Exam	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- slides (as uploaded to Coospace)</li> <li>- additional materials as provided by the lecturer</li> <li>- non-compulsory book: Róisín Sarah Burke: Sexual Exploitation and Abuse by UN Military Contingents – Moving Beyond the Current Status Quo and Responsibility under International Law, Brill/Nijhoff, 2014</li> </ul>

