Internationalization at Kocaeli University

Internationalization, which is one of the priorities of our school, focuses on integrating an international / intercultural dimension into our teaching, research and service functions.

The Rationale of Internationalization at KOU

- Student-faculty development
- Improving quality/international standards
- Strategic partnerships
- Production of research and knowledge

Research-related activities

- Integrating international perspectives and subjects into existing research centers and programs
- Increasing collaboration with international partners
- Individual international mobility for researchers
- Paid leave opportunities for faculty to participate in international activities
- Research-related training for graduate students

Education-related activities

- Internationalization of curricula: adding international content to disciplines, comparative approaches, problem-oriented approaches and interdisciplinary studies, area studies, international and intercultural studies, developing international programs
- Foreign language studies
- The admittance of foreign students into undergraduate and graduate programs

Internationalization of our curricula

- Nearly in every faculty of our university, there are some English courses (both on-line and face-to-face) offered for international students
- In their first year of education, international students are offered an intensive Turkish preparatory program and they are taught Turkish by native Turkish instructors
- For the incoming Erasmus courses are opened paying special attention to 'recognition'

Multiculturalism as a part of internationalization

- Our international students are seen as both the cultural ambassadors of their nation and global citizens
- ‘International student day’ is organized every year where students coming from different countries introduce their home culture. This event is organized by both Kocaeli University and Kocaeli Municipality including international students of 2 universities in Kocaeli.

KOU International Relations Office

Our International Relations Office has a key role in the internationalization of our university. This office is the place where all international agreements are made.

- International collaboration agreements
- International student exchange
- International visiting faculty
- Course credit transfer systems
- International internships for students and faculty
