

Legal Foundations of International Co-operation

Dr. Anikó Szalai

szalaianiko@juris.u-szeged.hu

Time: 14:00-15:30

Place: Faculty of Law main building, Room 211.

Compulsory reading material: Karen A. Mingst: Essentials of International Relations, Sixth ed., Norton & Company, New York, London, 2013. (Chapters indicated below)

Dates of course	Topic	Reading material	Recommended reading
September 24	International relations (history, different approaches, theories, the international system)	Chapters 1-4.	--
October 8	States and intergovernmental organizations	Chapter 5, 7	www.un.org
October 22	Armed conflicts	Chapter 8	Charter of the United Nations
November 5	Non-governmental organizations, individuals	Chapters 6, 7, 10	www.ohchr.org
November 19	Economic cooperation	Chapter 9	www.wto.org
December 3	Global problems	Chapter 11	http://www.un.org/en/globalissues/

Grading:

30 % class participation

70 % written exam in exam period

Presence:

Compulsory

Missing acceptable maximum 2 times

Being late more than 15 minutes equals to missing class.