

Call for application and call for paper
Conference for PhD students in the field of law

The Postgraduate Doctoral School of Law and Political Sciences of Széchenyi István University (Győr, Hungary) organizes a conference for PhD students under the title and the aegis of the conference entitled “A jogtudomány sajátosságai 2023” (“The Peculiarities of Jurisprudence 2023”).

The organizers will provide one or more separate panels for PhD students to deliver presentations or submit a paper in English. The papers will be published in the conference proceedings called “Doktori Műhelytanulmányok 2024” (“Doctoral Working Papers 2024”). The deadline of submitting the papers: 31 March 2024.

Date of the Conference: 8 December, 2023 (Friday)
The conference will be held online. Platform: Google Meet.

You can apply to the conference in 3 forms:

- Only oral presentation (10.000 HUF ca. 25 EUR)
- Presentation and conference paper for the proceedings (10.000 HUF ca. 25 EUR)
- No presentation just conference paper for the proceedings (10.000 HUF ca. 25 EUR)

You can pay the publication fee after the acceptance of registration (but before 31th of December 2023) to the Foundation of the Faculty of Law and Political Sciences: “Deak Ferenc Alapítvány a Győri Jogászkepzésért”, bank account (IBAN): HU 60 1040 0511 5052 6766 5250 1015. In the notes please write the followings: „SZE-AJDI registration fee.”

You can fill the application form

Deadline for applications: 24 November, 2023 (14.00 p.m.)
Notification of the receptions: 4 December, 2023

The payment doesn't guarantee the further publication, the paper has to be accepted by the editorial board through review. In case your contribution is not published (e.g. due to failure to comply with deadlines or prescribed format, etc.), the registration fee is not refundable.

For any additional information, please do not hesitate to contact us via email (olah.viktoria@ga.sze.hu, bartko.robert@ga.sze.hu).

Sincerely yours,

Assoc. Prof. DR. HABIL. BARTKO ROBERT PHD
secretary of Doctoral School