AND POLITICAL SCIENCES

University of Szeged

DEAN'S WELCOME

I am filled with pride to welcome you to the Faculty of Law and Political Sciences at the University of Szeged—a community shaped by more than 150 years of academic excellence, and community spirit. Our Faculty has long been a vibrant hub for international collaboration, attracting students and scholars from across the globe. With a strong tradition in legal education, international relations, and political sciences, we are proud to offer programs that prepare students not only for academic success but also for meaningful contributions to society, both at home and abroad.

It is with great excitement that we introduce the COMPASS Program, a new initiative designed to strengthen our international outlook and create fresh opportunities for talented students from around the world. This program reflects our belief in the power of education to build bridges across cultures and foster the next generation of globally minded professionals. We look forward to welcoming you to Szeged, where academic excellence meets openness, diversity, and a shared vision for the future.

Prof. Dr. Márta GÖRÖG
Dean, Professor

PROGRAM OVERVIEW

The COMPASS Program (Comparative Politics, Law, Administration, and Social Science Studies) offers an exciting opportunity for students to broaden their academic and cultural horizons. Designed for undergraduate and graduate students specializing in Law, International Relations, Political and Social Sciences, the program provides a dynamic curriculum tailored to equip participants with a deeper understanding of the chosen themes.

Students enrolled in the Program have the flexibility to choose from a wide range of specialized courses grouped into thematic pools, allowing them to customize their academic journey according to their interests and career goals. Through a combination of coursework, cultural immersion, and international networking opportunities, the program aims to foster critical thinking, professional development, and cross-cultural understanding.

Customize your academic journey through a wide selection of specialized courses in international law, politics, and social sciences while building global connections.

PROGRAM

OVERVIEW

COMPASS is a one-semester academic experience that culminates in the award of a certificate, formally recognizing the number of ECTS credits earned by the student. This document serves as proof of academic achievement and can be recognized toward further studies, subject to the regulations of the student's home institution.

The University of Szeged qualifies as one of the best Hungarian universities, ranked between 401st and 500th globally and holding the first position nationally, and the Faculty is listed in the 301+ category for law in the 2025 Times Higher Education subject ranking. Located in Szeged, one of Hungary's most vibrant and student-friendly cities, the program offers participants a supportive and stimulating environment for both academic and personal growth. Upon successful completion of the Program, students will also have the opportunity to apply for one of our full Master's or LL.M. level programs.

Earn a certificate with ECTS credits in a top-ranked university and continue your studies in one of our full Master's or LL.M. programs.
