

1st October 2019

Venue:

Rector's Office, Hall Nr.5
(Szeged, Dugonics tér 13.)

Organized by

Confucius Institute
University of Szeged

Faculty of Law and Political Sciences
University of Szeged

Program

- 14:00 Prof. Dr. GÖRÖG Márta: Opening speech by the Dean of the Faculty of Law and Political Sciences (English/Hungarian)
- 14:10 Professor CAO Deming: Sino-European relations as seen from the 40 years of educational and academic exchanges between China and Europe
- 14:35 Professor LIU Hongsong: A prospect of the cooperation between China and Europe in global management
- 15:00 Tea break
- 15:15 Professor XIN Hua: The characteristics and trends of Sino-European economic and trade relations from the perspective of the tripartite strategic relations between China, the United States and Europe
- 15:40 Professor WANG Zhiqiang: Sino-European relations from the perspective of the educational exchanges between China and Europe
- 16:05 Q&A
- 16:30 Tea reception

The lectures are in Chinese with English Translation.

Biographies

Prof. Dr. CAO Deming, Professor and Doctorate Tutor of the French Department, Director of the Center for EU Studies, Shanghai International Studies University. From 1981 to 1984, he studies in France from 1981 to 1984 and got a Ph.D. in French language and literature major. Currently he is president of the Chinese Association of French Professors and vice president of the Shanghai Institute for European Studies. He was also president of the Shanghai International Studies University during 2005-2017. In March of 2015, he was awarded the title and medal of “Commandeur de l’Ordre des Palmes Académiques” by the French government. His major research fields are: cultural and social studies of French-speaking countries, and European cultural policy. His major academic works include: The Series of Books of the Studies on EU Member States from a Cultural Perspective (author and chief editor), A Study on EU and Its Member States’ Relations with Africa, Lexicologie du Français Moderne, and Dictionnaire Pratique Français-Chinois.

Prof. Dr. LIU Hongsong, is professor of International Relations and deputy dean of School of International Relations and Public Affairs, Shanghai International Studies University. His research interests include: international organizations, global governance, EU foreign policy and Chinese foreign policy. He has published widely in international peer-reviewed journals and Chinese journals. He was a visiting fellow in the Centre for International Studies at London School of Economics and Political Science (LSE) from September 2013 to August 2014. Also, he was a visiting fellow in the Centre for the Study of Globalization and Regionalization at University of Warwick. He received research grants from Chinese Philosophy and National Social Science Foundation, Ministry of Education of China, Shanghai Philosophy and Social Science Foundation, Shanghai Municipal Education Commission, Shanghai Education Development Foundation, among others. In 2011, Ministry of Education of China awarded him an honor of New Century Excellent Talent in University. His recent and forthcoming publications include “Shaping the Agenda Jointly? China and the EU in the G20” (co-authored with Shaun Breslin, in Jianwei Wang and Weiqing Song, eds., China, the European Union and the International Politics of Global Governance, Palgrave Macmillan, 2016) and China’s New Role in Global Governance: Shaping the Rules (Routledge, forthcoming).

Prof. Dr. WANG Zhiqiang, is a professor and doctorate tutor of the German Department, and senior research fellow of the Center for EU Studies, Shanghai International Studies University. He got a Ph.D. and a M.A. from the University of Bayreuth, Germany. His major research fields include: cultural and social studies of German-speaking countries, and Chinese-German cross-cultural communication studies. He teaches the courses of German Cultural History and Chinese-German Cross-Cultural Communication Studies. He already published 64 papers and 12 academic monographs, lexicon dictionaries, and textbooks. His major academic works are: Fremdheitsprofile moderner deutscher China-Reiseführer, The EU Member States from a Cultural Perspective: Germany, Deutsch-Chinesisches Wörterbuch Der Synonyme und Antonyme, and Basic Deutsch (state-authorized textbook).

XIN Hua is research professor and executive deputy director of the Center for EU Studies at Shanghai International Studies University (SIES). He is also trustee and director of research of Shanghai Institute for European Studies (SIES), non-resident research professor of the Center for National Strategic Studies at Shanghai Jiaotong University, councilor of the Shanghai Council for Asia-Pacific Economy, and guest research professor of Institute for Contemporary Chinese Studies of Aichi University, Japan. He regularly provides advice to high-level policymakers through Chinese think tanks and is frequently called upon to offer media commentaries. He has won several academic prizes issued by the Shanghai Federation of Social Science Associations. He received his Ph.D. of international relations from the Fudan University. His major research fields include: EU-China-U.S. economic relations and economic diplomacy, and comparative studies on the European and East Asian regional integrations. His recent publications include: “The Interest Groups’ Influence Mechanisms on the Policymaking in the U.S.-EU Trade Negotiations: A Comparative Study of the U.S. Chamber of Commerce and the Business Europe”, Chinese Journal of European Studies, Vol. 36, No. 6: 56-82; “Analysis of the Strategic Rationale behind the EU-Japan Economic Partnership Agreement”, Global Review, Vol. 10, No. 6: 95-119; European Think Tanks’ Influence on EU’s Policymaking towards the Middle East, Beijing: Social Sciences Academic Press (China), 2017; “Chinese Think Tanks’ Influence on Foreign Policy Making: a Case Study on the Role of CIIS and SIIS in the Making of China’s Policy towards the Europe”, in Donald Abelson, Stephen Brooks, and Xin Hua eds., Think Tanks, Foreign Policy and Geopolitics: Pathways to Influence, London: Routledge, 2017.