

International Organizations; Erasmus/International studies/Gateway

University of Szeged Faculty of Law and Political Sciences International and European Law Department

2018/2019 Spring Semester

Lecturers	Dr. Anikó Szalai szalaianiko@juris.u-szeged.hu Dr. Orsolya Johanna Sziebig ojsziebig@juris.u-szeged.hu Dr. András Hárs andras.hars@juris.u-szeged.hu
Completion requirements	1. Attendance at classes 2. Active participation at classes 3. Presentation (on the last three weeks of the semester)
List of topics	1. General overview, history of international co-operation 2. Definition, classification, organs, budget and procedure - Theory I. 3. International civil service, relations, immunities, treaties, responsibility - Theory II. 4. United Nations (UN) 5. Regional organizations (African Union, League of Arab States, Organization of American States) 6. Collective security, disarmament, nuclear safety (NATO, OSCE, IAEA, CTBTO) 7. Economic organizations (OECD, WTO) 8. Forum, movements, future of international co-operation
Literature	Anikó SZALAI: Introduction to the Law of International Organizations . University of Szeged, 2014. ISBN: 978-963-306-266-1